Cohen & Steers Announces Chief Financial Officer Transition

NEW YORK, September 15, 2025—Cohen & Steers, Inc. (NYSE: CNS) announced today that Raja Dakkuri, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, has provided notice of his decision to resign from the company effective October 17, 2025, as he has secured another opportunity. Cohen & Steers has named Michael Donohue, Senior Vice President and Controller, to serve as Interim Chief Financial Officer effective upon Mr. Dakkuri's departure. The company has initiated a search that will include internal and external candidates to find a permanent successor.

Joseph Harvey, Chief Executive Officer, said:

"Raja has made a positive impact on our firm and finance department. We thank him for his contributions to Cohen & Steers and wish him continued success. Mike has direct, broad-based experience in our financial and accounting functions as a senior member of the finance department, and is well prepared to lead the department as interim Chief Financial Officer."

Mr. Donohue has served as Senior Vice President and Controller of the company since May 2023. He was previously a Managing Director and Corporate Controller for Hamilton Lane, where he helped lead the team that led the firm's IPO in 2017 and transitioned its Finance and Reporting functions. Prior to joining Hamilton Lane in 2008, he was Assistant Controller at PQ Corporation and a Manager at KPMG.
