Cohen & Steers Income Opportunities REIT, Inc. Acquires ALDI-Anchored Shopping Center in Bonita Springs, Florida

New York, December 8, 2025—Cohen & Steers Income Opportunities REIT, Inc. (“CNSREIT”) announced today its acquisition of Springs Plaza, a grocery-anchored open-air shopping center in Bonita Springs, Fla. The acquisition was made through a programmatic joint venture with Phillips Edison & Company (NASDAQ: PECO – “PECO”), a publicly-traded owner and operator of grocery-anchored U.S. neighborhood shopping centers. This is CNSREIT’s fourth acquisition with PECO and eighth open-air shopping center in the portfolio.

Springs Plaza is a 195,000 square foot grocery center located on the coast of Southwest Florida. It is 99% occupied and includes major tenants such as ALDI, Ross, Ollie’s, and Athletica Health & Fitness. The property is located in Bonita Springs, a fast-growing community located between Naples and Fort Meyers with over 1,100 housing units under construction within a five-mile radius of the property. The property has a 3-mile cumulative population growth of 3.8% projected over the next five years.¹

James S. Corl, Chief Executive Officer of CNSREIT and Head of the Private Real Estate Group at Cohen & Steers, said:

“Springs Plaza is positioned at the busiest intersection in Bonita Springs—at the northern gateway to the Naples area, the destination with the highest median wealth and income in West Florida². The surrounding retail is almost completely full and there is no new construction underway. This is a great backdrop for growing the cash flow from already high levels and upgrading the tenancy longer term.”

CNSREIT is acquiring high-quality properties that seek to generate attractive income potential alongside best-in-class operators and has an initial focus on well-anchored, necessity-driven shopping centers. Open-air shopping centers are at their highest occupancy level of the past 16 years at 95.7%³, according to real estate analytics provider CoStar Group.
